

CROSSWORD IN A CAULDRON

Directions: Yikes! The cauldron has bubbled over and look at what has appeared! Using your knowledge of energy conservation vocabulary, read the clues and fill in the missing words to complete the puzzle.

ACROSS

5. ____ is the preservation of excessive use of a resource.
7. A ____ resource is a natural resource that is replaceable, such as energy from the sun.
9. ____ energy is used by a device when it is in standby mode or in the "off" position.
10. Examples of ____ ____ (2 words) are coal, natural gas, and oil.

DOWN

1. ____ represents the electric force or measure of electric pressure.
2. An amount of power required at a single point in time is called ____.
3. ____ energy is from the sun that is converted into thermal or electrical energy.
4. An example of a ____ resource is coal.
6. ____ is the ability to do work.
8. ____ is the basic unit to measure energy.